Confirm that you want to share some information with Chegg.com, review the .Giovanni Paolo Martire Giovanni Paolo Martire (L'Aquila, 1627-L'Aquila, 1710) was an Italian painter of the Baroque period. He was a follower of Pietro da Cortona. Biography He was a pupil of the Cavalierino family in Parma, and then of Ribera at the San Salvatore in Lauro fresco school. As a young man he travelled in the north of Italy, where he was connected with the Carracci, the Flemish Academy, and the Ducal court in Mantua. The earliest work of which there is a record was in the ducal chapel of Parma, but the only known painting is the Madonna and Child for the church of San Fermo ai Marmi; the picture was commissioned in 1660. His most famous work is likely the Assumption of the Virgin, (now in the Galleria Nazionale d'Arte Antica, Rome); begun in 1680, it replaced another painting of the same subject by Francesco Vanni (1680) that once decorated the L'Orientale Chapel of the Ducal Palace of Mantua. Martire completed the fresco in about 1690, with a canvas of the Assumption of the Virgin on a large scale. There were later modifications to the painting, with the Assumption moved to the left and the Virgin, the Magdalen, and other figures to the upper left; the latter was probably done in 1695. The painting now hangs in the Galleria Nazionale d'Arte Antica in Rome. In 1865, a copy (oil on canvas) was commissioned by Pope Pius IX and is now in the Museo Dioc
