The serial number is not working, I do have the serial for it though so I'm Å . How can I fix this problem without reinstalling Windows!?!?!? A: Your Windows has the automatic updates enabled. Double-click "Windows Update" in the Start Menu, click "Check for updates" and then follow the onscreen instructions. If that doesn't work, then open the Control Panel. Go to the Windows Update icon and click "View details of available updates" (or just press Windows+I) and then follow the onscreen instructions. If that fails, then go to the Control Panel and then to the Action Center and click "View detailed event logs" (or just press the Windows+Alt+E) and follow the onscreen instructions. the trial court's judgment. He therefore says that the trial court's judgment is not final and has not been appealable. See Short v. Short, 478 S.W.2d 293, 294 (Tex. 1972). On the other hand, Father complains that the trial court mischaracterized his medical reimbursement request as a bill because he says he is entitled to reimbursement only for payment of medical expenses, and the bill is not a medical expense but only a billing statement. Father does not explain why the trial court's characterization of the request has no effect on the case—whether Mother's request was for reimbursement of medical expenses, or just a bill for the expenses, it is still a request for reimbursement. Moreover, the two issues that Father relies on to show the trial court's judgment was not final—his request for attorney's fees and his request for a credit for his medical expenses— essentially mirror the two issues we have already found to be without merit, so we conclude that the trial court's judgment was final and subject to appeal. 5

I went on a leadership team with two friends from this ministry and we prepared a 14 week series of weekly lessons based on the book "A Praying Life".
