Meghan, the Duchess of Sussex, has been criticised by her followers for wearing lace-up boots, which were worn by the iconic actress Julia Roberts in the film Pretty Woman. Meghan took part in a series of engagements at Windsor Castle last week and, as expected, she wore a black dress to the wedding reception held at St George's Chapel. But she went for a similar style to the one worn by Roberts, 50, in the 1990 comedy movie, the most successful romantic comedy film of all time, which has grossed $514 million at the global box office. Meghan wore black lace-up boots which featured a vamp style lace-up strap and a bow. A social media user said the Duchess looked like 'Julia Roberts in Pretty Woman'. Julia Roberts wore a similar boot in the movie Pretty Woman, a romantic comedy about a prostitute who meets a rich businessman. Meghan was dressed in a similar style to the actress in the style of lace-up boots that featured a bow on the strap, as well as a vamp style strap. A similar outfit was worn by Roberts in the film. The Duchess of Sussex looked nothing like Pretty Woman in the movie, which is a romantic comedy about a prostitute who meets a rich businessman. A follower commented: 'Meghan is such a professional but she looked like Julia Roberts in Pretty Woman.' Another user said: 'Meghan does it again...Princess #MeghanMellettlookslike #juliaroberts in pretty woman.' The Duchess of Sussex's outfit was a reflection of the dress she wore for her wedding. She wore a black dress with lace detailing on the sleeves, which were tightly gathered to create
